ELECTION RETURNS

Tuesday's Battle of the Ballots and the Results Accomplished.

SIX GOVERNORS ELECTED

In the Remaining States the Election Was Confined to Minor Offices.

The Astonishing Feature of the Day's Report Is the Wide Defection of Kentucky Democrats.

Wiping Out a Majority of 27,000 Four Years Ago, Republicans Elect Entire State Ticket.

Tom Johnson Continues to Hold His Place in the Affections of Cleveland People.

New York, Nov. 6.—Tuesday's elections being mainly for local officers, attracted small attention in those states not concerned in the results. Balloting was conducted in thirteen states, in six of which governors were elected.

Probably the most astonishing result was the landslide in Kentucky, which wiped out the 27,000 majority given Governor Beckham in 1903 and gave Augustus E. Willson for governor and the entire Republican ticket the state by a majority of more than 5,000.

Massachusetts re-elected the entire Republican state ticket headed by Governor Curtis Guild, Jr. Henry M. Whitney, Democrat and also running on two sets of nomination papers; Thomas L. Wagon, Independence League; General Charles W. Bartlett, Anti-Merger; Harvey S. Cowell, Prohibition; John W. Brown, Socialist; and Thomas F. Brennan, Socialist-Labor.

Pennsylvania elects John O. Sheets, Republican head of the ticket for state treasurer, by a large majority.

New York state elects Edward T. Arlet and Willard Bartlett, joint candidates on the Republican and Democratic tickets for justices of the court of appeals, over the candidate of the Independence League (Hearst). New York city elects the Tammany candidates by considerable majorities over the Independence League-Republican fusion candidates.

Frank S. Katzenbach, Jr. (Dem.) was elected governor of New Jersey by a narrow margin.

The Maryland contest for the governorship was warmly fought. Crothers (Dem.) was elected for governor by a plurality of about 6,000.

James H. Higgins (Dem.) was re-elected governor of Rhode Island over Frederick H. Jackson (Rep.) by a plurality estimated to be about 1,500, showing a Democratic gain from the plurality of last year.

The election of the Democratic ticket in Mississippi, headed by E. F. Noel for governor, was a foregone conclusion, as there is no opposition ticket.

In Nebraska M. B. Reese, Republican candidate for the supreme court, the most important state office voted on, was elected.

The majority contest in Cleveland resulted in the election of Tom L. Johnson, present mayor, over Congressman Burton.

The American or Anti-Mormon party at Salt Lake City gave the largest pluralities ever given in that city.

At Toledo Mayor Whitlock and the entire Independent ticket is elected. Cincinnati elects Colonel Leopold Markbreit, the Republican candidate for mayor. At San Francisco Dr. Ed ward R. Taylor, Democratic and good government candidate for mayor, was elected, and District Attorney Langdon, municipal graft fighter, was returned.

KENTUCKY TURNS OVER

Entire Republican State Ticket Elected by Big Majority.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 6.—Governor Augustus E. Willson, Louisville; lieutenant governor, William H. Cox, Maysville; attorney general, James Breathitt, Hopkinsville; auditor of public accounts, Frank P. James, Harrodsburg; treasurer, Edwin Farley, Paducah; secretary of state, Ben L. Bruner, Hardyville; superintendent of public instruction, John G. Crabbe, Ashland; commissioner of agriculture, labor and statistics, M. C. Rankin, Pleasureville; clerk of court of appeals, Napier Adams, Somerset; railroad commissioner, Second district, L. P. Tarleton, Frankfort.

Augustus E. Willson, Republican candidate for governor, and the entire Republican state ticket have been elected by majorities ranging from 5,000 to 10,000, and the Republicans have carried the city of Louisville for both state and city tickets. James F. Grinstead (Rep.) is elected mayor of Louisville by 3,500 majority.

The next Kentucky legislature will have a Democratic majority on joint ballot and presumably for Governor Beckham for United States senator, although there is already some talk of a bolt of some of the Democrats to defeat him. These are the results of one of the warmest and what seems to have been one of the fairest elections held in Kentucky in many years. This landslide wiped out the 27,000 majority polled by Governor Beckham in 1903.

IN MASSACHUSETTS

Republicans Return Governor Guild and Other State Officers.

Boston, Nov. 6.—The Republicans won a sweeping victory, re-electing Governor Guild and all other state officers. The Republicans will have their usual majority in both branches of the legislature.

The state officers elected were: Governor, Curtis Guild, Jr., of Boston; lieutenant governor, Eben S. Draper, secretary of state, William M. Olin; treasurer, Arthur D. Chapin; auditor, Henry E. Turner; attorney general, Dana Malone. Governor Guild's plurality is about 75,000.

CURTIS GUILD, JR.

Governor Guild was opposed for re-election by six other candidates—Henry M. Whitney, Democrat and also running on two sets of nomination papers; Thomas L. Wagon, Independence League; General Charles W. Bartlett, Anti-Merger; Harvey S. Cowell, Prohibition; John W. Brown, Socialist; and Thomas F. Brennan, Socialist-Labor.

The total vote of Boston for governor was: Bartlett, 3,114; Guild, 38,442; Higgin, 19,993; Whitney, 25,511. Last year the vote was: Guild, 37,143; Moran, 50,671.

In Boston the feature of the election was the contest for district attorney, in which Joseph A. Dennis JOHN B. MORAN.

(Dem.) and Walter A. Webster (Rep.) opposed the re-election of John B. Moran, the candidate of the Independence League. Moran was re-elected by a large plurality.

The composition of the next legislature will remain about the same as last year, 170 Republicans and 70 Democrats members of the house, and 28 Republicans and 12 Democrats members of the senate.

FUSIONISTS KNOCKED OUT

Straight Democratic Ticket Carries New York County.

New York, Nov. 6.—Republican and Independence League fusion in New York county was defeated by a straight Democratic ticket; the Independence League ticket for associate justices of the court of appeals was overwhelmingly beaten by the identical tickets of the Republicans and Democrats; and there will be a slight change in the make-up of the state assembly. In New York city the Independence League court of appeals ticket was defeated 4 to 1 and the league vote up state was light.

In the city interest centered in the county fight in which the Republican and Independence League forces opposed the Tammany ticket. James W. Gerard was elected to the supreme court with a wide margin over L. Y. Bruce. Thomas F. Foley defeated for the sheriff's office the fusion candidate, Max F. Ihmsen of the Independence League.

Edward T. Bartlett and William Bartlett, nominated by both Republicans and Democrats, were elected to the court of appeals over Ruben R. Lyon, a former Bryan Democrat, and John T. McDonough, a former Republican, both of whom were nominated by the Independence League.

The election was unusually quiet and the vote light. There were a considerable number of arrests for illegal voting.

Chairman Parsons of the Republican county committee, who was credited with having arranged the fusion, expressed surprise at the result and placed the responsibility on the financial situation and repeaters. Leaders of the Independence League wing of the fusion unreservedly declared its defeat due to a fraud.

In Kings county (Brooklyn) the Republicans were generally successful, though the Democrats elected District Attorney Clark.

The Republicans lost a few members of the assembly, probably six. Republicans swept all the candidates with one exception in office at Buffalo.

Elmira returned to the Democratic column so far as the majority was concerned. Republicans elected a city and a county ticket in Albany.

In Upper New York State.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 6.—The Republicans won in both Albany city and county against a fusion of the Democrats and Independence League and the Citizens' Union. Mayor Charles H. Gaus was elected over Edward A. Durant for a fourth term, and with him the entire Republican city ticket wins by a plurality of about 4,000. The Republican county ticket is elected by a plurality of about 6,000. For the first time in fourteen years the Republicans elected a mayor in Utica, and for the first time in seventeen years the Democrats carried Newburgh.

The Republicans were victorious in Ulster county and elected their candidate for mayor in Kingston. In Rochester the Republicans elected the mayor, but the Democrats carried the common council. Despite the protests of the united clergy, the Democrats elected a brewer for mayor. In Troy Mayor Ellis Mann was re-elected by the Republicans with a plurality of 350. The Independence League vote up state was light. Returns show the vote for the Bartletts in Greater New York to be $89,925, against $111,403 for McDonough and Lyon, the Independence League candidates for the court of appeals.

FOR THE FOURTH TIME

Cleveland Puts the Stamp of Approval on Tom Johnson.

Cleveland, Nov. 6.—Mayor Tom L. Johnson was re-elected for the fourth time as mayor of Cleveland in a hard-fought battle in which the Republican ticket was headed by Congressman Burton, chairman of the home committee on rivers and harbors. Johnson's majority is about 5,000, and the entire city Democratic ticket is carried by 3,000 or more. The Democrats elect a majority of the councilmen. Congressman Burton made considerable gains over the vote of two years ago, when William H. Boyd was the Republican candidate, but the gain was not sufficient to overcome the strong Johnson lead.

Practically Settled.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Under an arrangement made between the members of the political delegation here from Oklahoma, the question of the federal judgeships has been decided, and Ralph Campbell of McAllister, and John Cotterall of Guthrie, will be recommended to President Roosevelt for appointment to the two judgeships. This practically settles the question as to these positions.

Anti-Mormons Show Their Strength. Salt Lake City, Nov. 6.—Municipal candidates of the American (anti-Mormon) party have the largest plurality ever given in this city. Bransford for mayor has about 10,000 plurality over Plummer (Rep.) and Morris (Dem.), whose strength was very evenly divided. The Americans will control the council. They have been in power for the past two years.

By the Usual Majority.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 6.—The election in Virginia was only for candidates to both houses of the legislature. The Democrats will control both houses by the usual majority. In the Eighth congressional district C. C. Carlin of Alexandria (Dem.) was elected to succeed Congressman J. F. Rixey by an overwhelming majority.

Its Initial Victory.

Sacramento, Cal., Nov. 6.—The Lincoln-Roosevelt Republican League won its initial victory in this city, electing its candidate for mayor, Clinton L. White, over M. R. Beard, Democratic incumbent, by a majority of 115 votes.

LOCAL ISSUES PARAMOUNT

Ohio Has Her First Try at Separate Municipal Elections.

Cincinnati, Nov. 6.—Ohio's first experience in separate municipal elections demonstrated that local issues would be paramount and the results are so various that partisan victories cannot be generally claimed as such, each local fight having some particular complication.

For Cleveland, interest centered on the content of Mayor Johnson and Congressman Burton over the matter of street railway fares, an ultimate 3-cent fare or the immediate accomplishment of a present peace in local transportation matters, and gave a ballot leaning toward the former idea by endorsing Johnson.

In Cincinnati, Markbreit (Rep.) was elected mayor by so sweeping a vote that he carried his entire ticket with him, ending a fight of Mayor Dempsey (Dem.) for the vindication of a re-election and the present efforts of those who have been long opposing Republican leadership in Cincinnati affairs.

In Toledo, Mayor Brand Whitlock, who refused a Democratic nomination and ran for re-election as an Independent, has been emphatically endorsed, securing over 7,000 plurality.

Bond (Rep.) was elected mayor of Columbus by from 8,000 to 7,000 plurality over Duncanson (Dem.), who had announced strict enforcement of all liquor and Sunday laws as his platform.

Dayton's three-cornered fight ended in favor of the Democrats, their candidate, Burkhardt, winning over both the Republican and Independent candidates.

Mansfield has elected a Republican mayor, while Canton, Youngstown, Zanesville, Springfield, Findlay, Portsmouth, Ironton and Xenia seem to have chosen Democrats to run their affairs.

Piqua re-elected its "lid" mayor on a platform in which he declared for a continuance of that policy.

Strict enforcement of liquor and Sunday laws affected the result also in Zanesville and many smaller cities.

CINCINNATI'S NEW DEAL

Veteran German Editor Elected Mayor by Decisive Plurality.

Cincinnati, Nov. 6.—By a decisive plurality and a clear majority over all four competitors, Colonel Leopold Markbreit, the veteran German editor and former United States minister to Bolivia, was elected mayor of Cincinnati on the Republican ticket, and carried with him the entire Republican ticket. The campaign had been a vigorous one, but the fact that Mayor Dempsey, who was elected two years ago by a combination of Democrats and "Municipal party," was this year a candidate of the Democrats only and was opposed by many former supporters, gave the Republicans additional support in their claims that the Dempsey administration had been a failure.

Local Option Scores.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 6.—At the first test of the new local option law made in Illinois (counties not under township organization), seven counties went unqualifiedly for temperance, and in many former license strongholds the temperance forces were in a measure victorious. The claim is made at the headquarters of the Anti-Saloon League at Springfield that in the sixteen counties voting 250 saloons had been forced out of business and that 90 per cent of the territory affected had been brought into the "dry" territory. At Jacksonville 32 saloons were voted out, and at Duquoin the temperance people won by 26 votes. In the southern Illinois counties the mining towns without exception went "dry."

A Foregone Conclusion.

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 6.—The Democratic state ticket, headed by E. F. Noel for governor, was elected. Only a small vote was cast. The other officers include Luther Manship, lieutenant governor; E. J. Smith, auditor; G. D. Edwards, treasurer; J. W. Poer, secretary of state; T. M. Henry, insurance commissioner; R. F. Fletcher, attorney general; H. K. Backesley, commissioner of agriculture.

The Result in Maryland.

Baltimore, Nov. 6.—The Democrats have carried the city by about 3,000 and returns from the counties indicate that the Democrats have elected all their candidates by about 4,100 outside the city. This would give them the city and state by about 7,100. The legislature appears to be safely Democratic.

They Split Their Tickets.

Ogden, Utah, Nov. 6.—Brewer (Dem.) was elected mayor by 176 majority. The Republicans carried the other city offices by majorities ranging from 125 for city attorney to 660 for recorder.

The "Galveston Plan" Rejected.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 6.—With a light vote the plan of municipal government by commission, otherwise called the Galveston plan, was defeated by a majority of 34 in a total vote of 1,100.

Turns Down Republican Mayor.

Youngstown, O., Nov. 6.—After an unusually vigorous campaign the vote was very heavy. Graves (Dem.) was elected mayor over Baldwin, the present Republican incumbent, by about 800.

IN NEW JERSEY

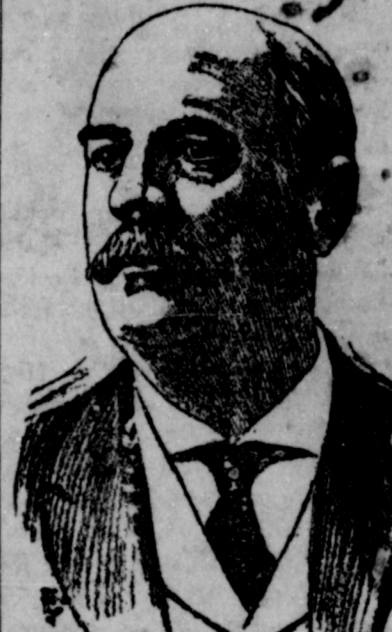

Frank S. Katzenbach, Jr., Defeats Judge John F. Fort.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 6.—Frank S. Katzenbach, Jr. (Dem.) has been elected governor by a plurality of about FRANK S. KATZENBACH, JR.

15,000. Mr. Katzenbach not only made heavy gains in Northern New Jersey, but also cut down the normally large Republican majority in southern ern New Jersey. It is too early to forecast the complexion of the legislature. The senate will continue Republican. Half of the assembly will probably be Democratic.

WHITLOCK RE-ELECTED

Toledo's Literary Mayor Returned to the People.

Toledo, O., Nov. 6.—Brand Whitlock was re-elected mayor of Toledo by a plurality of about 5,000. The fight was made on the issue of franchise for street railway companies, along the lines as laid down by Tom Johnson, mayor of Cleveland. Opponents of Whitlock put up an argument of law and morality enforcement. Whitlock is a disciple of Mayor Sam Jones of Golden Rule fame.

The President Votes.

Washington, Oct. 6.—President Roosevelt cast his ballot at 9:55 o'clock Tuesday morning at Oyster Bay, thus registering his choice as to two associate justices of the court of appeals, a justice of the supreme court of the state, member of the assembly, county officers and several proposed amendments to the state constitution. For the president to exercise the elective franchise necessitated eighteen hours and 225 miles of railroad travel, and four minutes in the voting booth. The trip was without incident, and the president reached Washington at 6:16 o'clock Tuesday night.

Had Nothing to Say.

Washington, Nov. 6.—After returning to Washington from Oyster Bay, where he went to vote, President Roosevelt received election returns at the executive office. Secretary Loeb was with the president, but no announcement of any kind was issued from the White House in comment on the returns.

Democrats Gain One.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 6.—The New Jersey senate for 1908 will stand: Republican, 14; Democrats, 7, a gain of one for the Democrats.

Will Close Thirty Saloons.

Jacksonville, Ill., Nov. 6.—Local option won in the city election Tuesday by 600 votes, and thirty saloons will be closed.

Voted Out the Saloons.

Duquoin, Ill., Nov. 6.—Duquoin voted out the saloons Tuesday. A large temperance demonstration followed the vote.

Mansfield's Republican Mayor.

Mansfield, O., Nov. 6.—Huntington Brown (Rep.) was elected mayor over W. F. Voegelé, Jr. (Dem.) by over 400.

In the Philippines.

Manila, Nov. 6.—A majority of the Independence candidates have been elected. The vote was very heavy.

Findlay Elects a Democrat.

Findlay, O., Nov. 6.—Walker (Dem.) was elected for mayor over Gillespie (Rep.) by 200.

Willson carried Louisville by

The Republican carried the 3rd,
4th, 5th, 9th, 10th and 11th Con-

The latest reports are that the House is a tie—50 each, with the Senate about 10 Democratic ma-

Not Discharged.

An old antebellum negro in a small southern town was arrested and brought before the village magistrate for drunkenness. He asked for a lawyer who had helped him out of scrapes before, and the magistrate sent for the attorney.

The young man came into the little office, where the usual crowd of spectators had gathered, and asked the old negro, "Well, William, what are you charged with this time?"

Sadly the ancient darky replied,
"Boss, I's charged with whisky."—Har-

Shake in a Bottle.

Now is the time when the doctor gets busy, and the patent medicine manufacturers reap the harvest unless great care is taken to dress warmly and keep the feet
dry. This is the advice of an old eminent authority, who says that Rheumatism and Kidney trouble weather is here, and also tells what to do in a case of an attack.
Get from any good prescription pharmacy one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargon, three ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Mix by shaking in a bottle and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime.

Just try this simple home-made mixture at the first sign of Rheumatism, or if your back aches or you feel that the kidneys are not acting just right. This is said to be a splendid kidney regulator, and almost certain remedy for all forms of Rheumatism, which is caused by uric acid in the blood, which the kidneys fails to filter out. Any one can easily prepare this at home and at small cost.
Druggists in this town and vicinity, when shown the prescription, stated that they can either supply these ingredients, or if our readers prefer, they will compound the mixture for them.

S. E. Patton has compromised with his creditors and has opened up his store on Broadway. Attachments against about $23,000 of property has been discharged, leaving Mr. Patton entirely free from debt.

Tuesday's great victory is due to the fact that the conservative Democrats and Republicans voted the Republican ticket. We have no hope of electing a Republican to the U. S. Senate but we believe enough honest Democrats have been elected to the legislature to make Beckham's election impossible. We therefore sincerely hope that the Republicans will combine with the Democrats and elect an able representative man to the Senate. The State should be well represented and there are several hundred able Democrats who would be a credit and a help to our State. — Winchester Sun-Scout.

College Notes.

Nine weeks of the first term have passed with good work and good attendance.

Mr. A. E. Sloan, of Wyconda, Mo., arrived Thursday to assist in the Collegiate department. This will give Prof. Crego time to attend to office work and also an opportunity to work up the Normal, which will open after the Christmas vacation. Mr. Sloan is a graduate of the Missouri State Normal. Mrs. Crego was employed to assist a part of each day only until the opening of the Normal, but has cheerfully given all her time to the school. She will teach the Latin and Literature and take full work when the Normal begins.

Miss Ryland has asked to be released from her work in the Institute, and her request has been granted. She goes to the city of New York to complete her studies in Domestic Science, where she has an unusual opportunity for the rest of the year. We regret to see Miss Ryland go, as we feel that she has been a good friend to the Institute, and the best wishes of the students and faculty go with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Baron Arnold, from Michigan, will arrive within a few days, Mr. Arnold to teach the Intermediate department and his wife to take charge of the sewing and act as matron in the dormitory.

Miss Fagan has a large music class. The chorus work begins this week. This will be free and it is hoped that a large number will avail themselves of the opportunity to learn to sing.

The special reading class is preparing to put on a play about Thanksgiving time. The art of public reading and speaking is one that should receive more attention than is usually given it.

Ladies' long coats very cheap at Jones' store.

Mrs. J. J. C. Back and R. A. Hurst and Kelly Kash left Wednesday morning for a trip to Hot Springs, Ark., in search of health and recreation. They will be gone about a month and will visit other points of interest in the west.

Breck Flinchum, who has had a position with a lumber company at Harriman, Tenn., has moved back to his former residence on Highland avenue.

Special Meetings Closed.

The special meetings that were held in the Christian church closed Sunday night. While there were not scores of converts and packed houses each night, yet a meeting's success is not measured always by converts and crowds. Rev. W. J. Cocke was an earnest speaker and not with undue emotion, but with thought and logic he presented the gospel and in such a way that no one in a moment of excitement was converted, but under meditation and foresight they confessed their Lord and Master. Bro. Cocke preached straight gospel and if the expression might be used, he fitted the shoe on many so called christians in that they preferred to attend other attractions rather than the meeting. Several were asked to attend the meeting, but some said that they had no one to go with them, but they could have been found at places of amusement every night or some other place. The Christian church feels that it had been unlifted through the preaching of Bro. Cocke and made stronger, more able to do greater things than ever before. The value of these meetings cannot be measured in dollars, but in what will be accomplished in the future.

Seriously Wounded.

Calloway Sebastian was shot and seriously wounded by Wm. Arnett at Lee City on election day. It is reported that the trouble came up over some old family grudge and was not caused by any political animosity. He was taken to a Lexington hospital Wednesday. It is thought that he will recover.

Sunday service at the Baptist church at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Morning subject: "Personal Work;" evening subject: "What it Cost to be a Christian." Everybody invited to attend these services. Special meetings will commence Sunday, November 24.

A new paper has been started at Hazard called The Mountain Evangelist. Rev. A. S. Petrey is the editor. It will be devoted mainly to the discussion of religious work in the mountains of Kentucky.

AT PHILADELPHIA

A Ten Million Dollar Loan Proposition Was the Big Issue.

Philadelphia, Nov. 6.—The election in Philadelphia passed off very quietly, the Republicans electing all their candidates by the usual large majorities. There was more interest taken in the fate of the $10,000,000 loan proposition than in the success of any candidate on the city or state ticket. The city party, the reform organization, which has fought the Republican organization for several years, went on record as against the loan and made a fight against the proposition. The returns show that the loan which had the solid backing of the Republican leaders, carried the city by a majority considerably under that given the successful Republican candidates.

John O. A. Sheatz, the candidate for state treasurer, whose home is in this city, ran strong and his plurality is close to 50,000 in the city. For the first time since 1904 there was no fusion against the Republican state ticket. The Independent Republican element which voted for the Lincoln party at the last two elections voted for Sheatz, who has been in sympathy with this element. Sheatz has served three terms in the house of representatives and voted against the organization on several important measures advocated by its leaders. Joel Cook (Rep.) was elected to congress from the Second Pennsylvania district to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John E. Reyburn, who was elected mayor of Philadelphia last spring.

Light Vote in Pennsylvania. Philadelphia, November 6.—John O. Sheatz of Philadelphia (Rep.) was elected state treasurer over John G. Harman of Columbia county (Dem.) by a large plurality. This was the only state office voted for, and a light vote was polled in nearly every county. There were large Republican gains for treasurer all over the state, as compared with the vote for this office two years ago.

Higgins Re-Elected. Providence, R. I., Nov. 6.—James H. Higgins, the Democratic candidate for re-election, led his Republican opponent, Lieutenant Governor Charles Jackson, and was re-elected by a plurality of about 1,700. The next general assembly will be strongly Republican, insuring the reelection of George Peabody Wetmore of Newport to the United States senate.

The Result in Columbus. Columbus, O., Nov. 6.—Charles Anson Bond (Rep.) was elected mayor of Columbus by a plurality ranging from 5,000 to 7,000. Mr. Bond was opposed by Judge Thomas A. Duncan (Dem.), who was pledged to enforce the midnight and Sunday closing laws.

The Nebraska Judgeship. Omaha, Neb., Nov. 6.—M. R. Reese, the Republican candidate, has been elected justice of the supreme court by a majority of 12,000 votes.

She Was Right. A cantankerous old farmer who hardly ever agreed with anything his wife said to him came home one wet day and, placing his back to the fire, stood up to dry. After some little time his wife turned to him and said: "John, you'll better watch yourself or you'll burn your flannels." To which John replied: "I think I'll need to burn my trousers first." "Indeed, John, you'll need to do something of the kind. They're burnt all ready," London Th. Bits.

A ROYAL NURSERY.

Green and White Are the Colors Used For Decoration.

The suit of rooms occupied by the heir of the Spanish throne is situated directly above the queen's bedroom and communicates with her apartments by a private staircase. It is on the sunny side of the palace, and it consists of a day and a night nursery, a dining room, bathroom, a dormitory for the attendants and a workroom.

Green and white are the colors of the day nursery. On the walls is a continuous series of animal pictures. Among the peculiarities of this room, which is to be the royal playroom, is the fact that there is not a sharp corner in it. Every angle is rounded so that the stumbling of the little feet may not result in cuts and bruises. Another feature is that the room itself from floor to ceiling and every article in it except the delicately rose tinted carpet of English manufacture is washable. The windows are protected without with hammered iron gratings of old fashioned design.

The night nursery is adorned with three frescoes, "Morning," "Midday" and "Night." The first shows a baby awakening in a cradle flooded with sunshine, the second a little child eating and the third a little boy saying his evening prayers, kneeling by his bed.

The furniture is of mahogany, lacquered white. A frieze of grotesque figures borders the walls.

Young Alfonso occupies the same crib that his father and grandfather slept

ONE OF THE ROYAL BABY'S CRADLES.

In, but the queen has had it remodeled. It used to be ornamented with two high pillars, which supported a canopy modeled on the Spanish crown. From this heavy draperies of lace flowed to the ground.

The queen has had pillars, canopy and curtains removed. The court says she was afraid of the crown falling and crushing the infant. Most likely it was her modern appreciation of free circulation of air about the sleeping child that dictated the change.

All the rooms, though beautiful, are simple. They are planned and adorned in the child spirit. Queen Victoria is something of a fastidious queen. She inherits it from her grandmother and namesake.

Utilizing Burlap. Did you ever think the ordinary yellow burlap that comes around bulky parcels can be turned to account by the clever needlewoman? For instance, some of the cleaner pieces may be utilized as really pretty porch cushions.

Take two pieces twenty-four inches square and make a simple border of scrolls or cross stitch in heavy twisted cotton, rope silk or even colored wrapping cord, as has been done with not bad effect.

Fill the cushions with excelsior and use white manilla rope as a cord, fringing short pieces for tassels at each corner.

Another pretty treatment is to apply large flowers cut from cretonne to the burlap. Buttonhole with cotton a tone or two deeper than the flowers or else with a very narrow line of black.

Finish such a pillow with a turned hem on each half. Cover the machine stitching with a row or two of narrow braid the color of the outlining.

Help That Counts.

There is one person in the world that will never fail you if you depend upon her and are honest with her, and that is yourself.

The girl who learns to rely upon herself, is never disappointed when she depends upon any outside help.

It is the self-reliant girl that is in demand everywhere.

It is the girl who can do things with force and originality, not simply dream about them.

It is the girl who takes the trouble to go to the bottom of everything, who is thorough in small things as well as large.

It is the girl who not only has high ideals, but is willing to make sacrifices to live up to them.

It is the girl who takes the thorns in her occupation with as good grace as the roses.

It is the girl who does not measure the quality and quantity of her work by the amount of her salary.

Conventional and Natural. Many people are puzzled by the terms conventional and natural designs.

The former means a design which does not profess to copy nature and only by device or form suggests the flower, leaf or fruit found in the pattern. It may be worked in many colors.

A natural design endeavors to follow the coloring of the natural leaves, blossoms and stems it pictures.

The Bishop's Knee Breaches. A certain bishop while dining at the house of one of his friends was pleased to observe that he was the object of marked attention from the son of his host, whose eyes were firmly riveted upon him. After dinner the bishop approached the boy and asked:

"Well, my young friend, you seem to be interested in me. Do you find that I am all right?"

"Yes, sir," replied the boy, with a glance at the bishop's knee breaches. "You're all right, only" (hesitatingly) "won't your mamma let you wear trousers yet?"—London Th. Bits.

BULL EXERCISER.

A Device That Hardens Muscle and Tones Down Temper.

The necessity of some form of exercise for the stock bull has long been recognized, and many devices have been experimented with. Mr. F. E. Dawley in Country Gentleman announces the pole and sweep shown in the cut the most satisfactory device that he has ever used. Mr. Dawley describes the device as follows, and the arrangement is easily understood, although one of the chains alluded to is not discernible in the cut:

It is made by setting a heavy post deeply in the ground, letting it extend up about six feet. A hand is placed on the top, and a section of an old steel wagon axle with the box attached is driven into the end. This post should not be less than ten inches through at the top. A hardwood sweep is cut and the center of gravity determined by balancing it over a sawhorse. A hole is then bored through this sweep at the center of gravity and the box securely fastened into it. It is then set back on the axle, the sweep swinging on the axle. Two short chains are attached to the small end of the sweep. To the lower end of one of these a swivel bar clevis is attached. To the other a very heavy snap is fastened. A piece of old two inch tug or a strong leather collar is placed on the bull's neck, being held in place by two short flat head bolts, which are far better than a buckle, and a ring is placed on this collar.

When the bull is led out before liberating him from the staff the large snap on one of the chains is snapped into this ring. The bar clevis is then screwed into the ring in the bull's nose, when he is ready to take his exercise.

The first time an animal is hitched it may be necessary to drive him around and to work the sweep for him in order to get him accustomed to it. The chains should be so adjusted that the one attached to the strap on his neck will swing the sweep. It should be long enough so he can reach the ground. By the use of this device I have kept a bull until he was fourteen years old in such condition that his muscles were hard and firm and he was vigorous and virile. One great advantage in exercising the animals in this way is that they become accustomed to being handled and are very much more tractable than when kept tied in the pens or when simply led out and put in a tread power once or twice a day for half an hour.

LIVE STOCK NOTES.

A meeting of the associations of Angora goat breeders and goat growers is announced for Nov. 15 at San Antonio, Tex. It is expected that some of the very best goats in America will be on exhibition in the same place from Nov. 9 to Nov. 24, and $500 in prizes will be awarded.

Bare Lot or Grass Lot. At the Louisiana experiment station an experiment as to the relation of bare lot and grass lot feeding to parasites in the stomach and intestines of sheep has been concluded, and Dr. Duryemple states in his report of the test, bulletin No. 95, that on the whole the lambs raised by the bare lot method were in every way more satisfactory than those raised on the grass lot.

Sugar Beets For Stock. Farmers are beginning to appreciate the value of sugar beets for stock feeding and are raising more of them each year. Many of the farmers in northern Colorado have grown beets for this purpose and will slice them before feeding, while others will turn their stock into the fields to fatten on tops and roots.

The Jones Cattle Company of the Middle Park has contracted for 300 tons of beets at Mead, which will be fed to cattle, with hogs following, a plan which was tried last year with excellent results.—Denver Field and Farm.

No American Coach Horse. Although numerous entries were made, not one was judged good enough to carry off the first prize for a coach horse which was offered this year by the Iowa state fair. The requirements were "American trotting bred horses of suitable size, conformation, style, quality and action for heavy harness service, 8 to 15 hands and over; 15.1 to 15.3 preferred. Horses competing must be standard bred or registered nonstandard."

Champion Buttermaker. Mrs. J. A. Peters of Story county has again won first prize at the Iowa state fair in the women's buttermaking contest. She is champion woman buttermaker in Iowa, having ranked first for many years. Sixty-four women, representing the states of Minnesota, Illinois, Iowa and Nebraska, competed.

Birds' Lightning Rods. "The humming bird is less than man, protects his habitation with a lightning rod," said an ornithologist. "Oh, you nature faker!"

"It is the truth. The humming bird nests in warm climates, where devastating thunderstorms abound, and very prudently he covers the outside of his little home with cobweb."

"Silk, you know, is a nonconductor of electricity, and since cobweb is silk, the humming bird's nest is lightning proof. Isn't he a clever little beggar to put up his own lightning rod like that?"—Cincinnati Enquirer.

HIS BAD BREAK.

He Didn't Think He Was Talking to the Woman's Husband.

The conductor looked at the thin man.

"Do you see that stout woman at the other end of the car—the one with the monkey hat?" he asked.

"I think I see the one you mean," the thin man responded.

"There, she's looking this way," said the conductor. "Well, sir, I admire that woman."

"You do?"

"Yes, I do. She may have a squint and wear bad fitting clothes and big shoes, yet I admire her."

"Why?"

"She knows how to get off a car the right way, that's why. She's too stout and her hair is filthy and she hasn't any taste, but when she steps down from the back platform I never worry. I know she'll land all right. I'm dead sure she isn't going to sit down in the mud and ask me for my number. That's why I admire her. Here she comes now. Watch her when she gets off."

The stout woman came down the aisle and briskly descended to the street. And the conductor, with his hand on the bell rope, winked approvingly at the slim man.

Then the stout woman looked around. "Come, George!" she called, and the slim man meekly followed her.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Collector. There is a lot of nine years in Philadelphia who recently grew most curious with reference to the profession of a gentleman of pronounced clerical appearance, who frequently visited the boy's father, a lawyer to the younger son's inquiry this connection the father replied to the effect that the good man was "a savior of souls."

Not long thereafter the lad took a favorable opportunity to approach the reverend gentleman himself. "May I ask you a question?" said he.

"Certainly, my little man," replied the divine. "I shall be pleased to answer it."

"I only wanted to know," was the naïve query, "how many souls you've saved up?"—Lippincott's.

A Narrow Escape. G. W. Chyd, a merchant of Plunk, Mo., had a narrow escape four years ago, when he ran a jimson bur into his thumb. He says: "The doctor wanted to amputate it but I would not consent. I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and that cured the dangerous wound." 25c at Jackson Drug Co.

A Judge's View of Women's Oaths. "Do I believe a woman under oath?" commented a judge whose name has figured prominently in many big cases. "Well, as there was a twinkle in the judicial eye, 'I'll tell you what I know about women in that connection and perhaps you can figure it out for yourself. If a woman likes a lawyer or the judge or the defendant at the bar or any one who happens to be related to him, she will swear to anything that she thinks will help him win his case. Not purposely, certainly, but that's the peculiar kind in a woman's mind. Whatever she wants to believe she does believe and honestly believes it to be true, and the same is good of the opposite proposition. If she dislikes a man, nothing she can say will be too bad for him. If she likes him, she can't say anything good enough. Now, do you still want an answer to that question?"—San Francisco Call.

Held His Superior's Nose. Strange duties fall to the lot of staff officers on service.

Sir Archibald Alison, who was connected with the Ashanti expedition in 1873, suffered from the malarious climate and was ordered to take a specific dose which, although probably salutary, was certainly nauseous.

His aid-de-camp handed it to him and advised him to hold his nose while taking it.

"But, my dear fellow, how can I?" said Sir Archibald, pointing to his empty sleeve.

"Don't let that stand in the way, sir," replied the aid-de-camp, and respectfully seizing the governor's nose he held it till the dose was swallowed.—Cornhill Magazine.

The Early Umbrella.

We may infer from the following announcement, copied from the London Female Tatler of Dec. 12, 1700, that the umbrella at that period was regarded as too offensive for the use of a man: "The young gentleman borrowing the umbrella belonging to Will's coffee house, Cornhill, of the mistress, is hereby advertised, that to be dry from head to foot on the like occasion he shall be welcome to the maid's patronage." About this time it was customary to keep an umbrella in the halls of larger houses for use in rainy weather, for shelter in proceeding from the house to a covered conveyance, and doubtless the one alluded to in the advertisement above quoted was for that purpose.

Cured of Bright's Disease. Mr. Robert O. Burke, Elmora, N. Y., writes: "Before I started to use Foley's Kidney Cure I had to get up from twelve to twenty times a night, and I was all bloated up with dropsy and my eyesight was so impaired I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. I had given up hopes of living, when a friend recommended Foley's Kidney's Cure. One 50c bottle worked wonders and before I had taken the third bottle the dropsy had gone, as well as all other symptoms of Bright's disease." Jackson Drug Co.

An Old Greek Glutton. Occasionally we hear of voracious gluttons among the old Greeks. One of the most noted was Philoxenus, who wished he had a neck like a crane, so that his enjoyment of what he swallowed could be lengthened by several inches. This selfish gourmandizer used to keep his throat in training by gargling it with scalding water. Then he bribed the cooks wherever he went to send in all the meat's furiously hot. Thus he finished the best there was of each dish before any one else dared to touch a morsel. A fellow guest was once so offended at this that he refused to remain at the table of Philoxenus, saying he had been invited to dine with a man and not with an oven.—Exchange.

Setting. Father—Come, young man, get your coat off and come with me. Tommy—You're not going to lick me, are you, dad?

Father—Certainly! Didn't I tell you this morning that I would settle with you for your bad behavior?

Tommy—Yes, but I thought it was only a joke, like when you told the grocer the other day you were going to settle with him.
